

Relapsing Multiple Sclerosis (MS)?

If you or someone you know is suffering with Relapsing Multiple Sclerosis (MS), and is aged 18 to 56, you may be interested in learning about a research study of an investigational medication for Relapsing Multiple Sclerosis (MS).

To qualify:

- You must be diagnosed with relapsing multiple sclerosis (MS)
- Be between the ages of 18 and 56
- Currently being treated with an interferon- β medication for at least 6 months

Qualified participants may receive at no cost:

- Investigational medication or placebo (inactive substance)
- Study related exams, including neurological exams and brain MRI
- Compensation for time and travel

For more information or to see if you qualify, please call:

502-479-1219

Leave your name and daytime phone number

www.kyresearchgroup.com